

SOUNDING LINE

Career & Educational Counseling

Building The Plan

The narrative assessment process is all about you. Whether you are a student, recent graduate, professional or approaching retirement, Sounding Line utilizes a suite of tools to clarify and explore possibilities. Each step of your plan is part of an accountable process. In order to facilitate your success, Sounding Line encourages you to choose from three different plans.

What You Get

The Onboard - Essentials - 5 hours, $560

Five Sessions - hour long, video conference, scheduled to need, 1 to 2 weeks apart

Online Storyteller™ web application access and personalized tools

- Career Sketch - gather & organize your desires, strengths and stories
- Career Statement - Concise, positive, forward thinking, a compass for exploration
- Exploration Plan - Guide and keep track of clues and inspired actions for possibilities
- Conversation Guide - organized support for conversations and embedded questions about your growth, learning and development with others and to spark imagination

Career Moves

- In session feedback on job applications, resume, LinkedIn, interview
- Job Search - support from networking to negotiation
- Tailored selection from among 20+ content rich resources for between sessions

Post-secondary (Student)

- In session feedback on college admissions process
- Alternative and Gap Year exploration and planning
- Career experiences, travel and student employment
- Tailored selection from among 20+ content rich resources for between sessions

Investment Details - The Onboard, 5 hours

- One payment of $560
- If you are unsatisfied after first session of plan, refund payment less $100
- Unused hours are transferable to family and friends for active plans